Objectives: Upon completion of this activity, the participants should be able to:

- Define the adolescent young adult (AYA) population
- Discuss the growing incidence of breast cancer in AYA population
- Review the new screening guidelines for breast cancer as of May 2023
- Discuss causes of the rise in diagnosis in young adults with breast cancer
- Explain the challenges in treating AYA patients and roles/responsibilities of oncology providers
- Encourage closure of the research gap for AYA patients
- Emphasize the need for better interprofessional communication and teamwork while co-managing these young patients
- Review key take away points for other specialties seeing breast cancer patients

Target Audience: This interprofessional activity is designed for physicians and nurses involved in the screening, evaluation, diagnosis, treatment and survivorship of breast disease patients. We also invite allied health professionals to attend.

Accreditation: In support of improving patient care, Texas Health Resources is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.
