Stephanie Y. Terauchi, M.D., FAAHPM
Palliative Medicine Specialist | Texas Imaging and Infusion Center
Dallas, Texas

"Palliative Care or Hospice: Which is Better for my Patients?"

- Differentiate between Palliative Care and Hospice services and the benefits of both.
- Review the different tiers of Hospice services and the qualifications for each that allow appropriate triage of the patient to the correct level of Hospice care.
- Discuss treatments covered by Hospice care versus those not covered to allow for more realistic expectations for successful Hospice transitions.
- Describe ethical considerations of discussing a "good death" with the patient and family.
- Discuss the need for a coordinated multidisciplinary team to help guide patient/family understanding and realistic decision making/expectations.
