"Family Wellness in the NICU"

- Discuss the clinical and ethical rationale for family mental health screening and intervention in the NICU.
- Discover how to meet attachment needs for baby and parents while in the NICU.
- Identify how to build a comprehensive care team in the NICU (with in-house and/or adjunct services and resources).

Target Audience: This interprofessional activity is designed for physicians and nurses in neonatology, pediatrics and obstetrics. We also invite respiratory therapists to attend and other allied health professionals.

Format: Didactic lecture with question-and-answer session

Accreditation:

In support of improving patient care, Texas Health Resources is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Designation of Credit:

Physicians: The Texas Health Resources designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Ethics: The presentation, "Family Wellness in the NICU", has been designated by Texas Health Resources for 1 credit of education in medical ethics and/or professional responsibility.

Nurses: 1 contact hour will be provided for nursing.
