“What Keeps Me Going: Post-COVID Era”

Thursday, July 17, 2025 | Noon - 1 p.m.

Panel Host:

Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital Dallas
Fogelson Auditorium

Schwartz Center Rounds is a forum to discuss challenging emotional and social issues in providing compassionate care for patients. This interprofessional activity is designed for physicians, nurses and chaplains. We also invite allied health professional and staff to attend.

Format: Panel broadcast from hosting hospital to participating hospitals, followed by discussion at participating hospitals.

Objectives: Upon completion of this activity, the participants should be able to:

- Describe the social, emotional, ethical and personal issues that arise during the care of patients and their impact on caregivers
- Demonstrate enhanced communication with patients, family members and colleagues
- Value opportunities to explore and understand multiple perspectives across disciplines
- Value opportunities to provide and receive support from other members of our healthcare community
- Model for learners' behaviors of nonjudgmental listening and respect

Accreditation: In support of improving patient care, Texas Health Resources is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.
