Schwartz Center Rounds is a forum to discuss challenging emotional and social issues in providing compassionate care for patients. This interprofessional activity is designed for physicians, nurses, and chaplains. We also invite allied health professionals and staff to attend.

Objectives: Upon completion of this activity, the participants should be able to:

- Describe the social, emotional, ethical, and personal issues that arise during the care of patients and their impact on caregivers
- Demonstrate enhanced communication with patients, family members and colleagues
- Value opportunities to explore and understand multiple perspectives across disciplines
- Value opportunities to provide and receive support from other members of our healthcare community
- Model for learners' behaviors of nonjudgmental listening and respect

Accreditation:

In support of improving patient care, Texas Health Resources is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

This program complies with the continuing education statutes and rules of the Texas Behavioral Health Executive Council.
